

Lassaw Preserve

In October of 2014, the department worked with Group for the East End and the Springs School Earthsavers Club to erect a deer enclosure on the Lassaw Preserve in Springs. Deer enclosures illustrate the effects of deer browsing in our woodlands by restricting deer from the small area that is fenced. This allows the vegetation within the enclosure to grow as it would without the impact from deer.